Prior to becoming a doctor I served as a British Army officer undertaking tours in Bosnia, Northern Ireland and Iraq.

As a GP I work both in the community and the custodial setting. Within the custodial setting, I am the Medical Director of HMP Ashfield. This is a category C Sex offenders jail which houses individuals with complex physical and mental health needs. I also work in HMP Bristol - a category B remand jail. For this work I have recently completed specialist substance misuse training.

Awards. For my prison work I have been recognized at both a regional and a national level:

- Finalist: 2019 Bristol and Bath Health and Care Awards - Best Innovation.
- Winner: 2019 RCGP Health and Social Justice Conference - Best innovation in Leadership & Transformation.
- Finalist: 2020 Health Service Journal – Value Awards: Primary Care or Community Service Redesign Initiative.
- Winner: 2021 Past Presidents Prize of the British Society for the Surgery of the Hand 2021

Conference. I have been asked to present my work to help disseminate best practice within this growing sub-specialty of prison medicine:

- 2019 RCGP Health and Social Justice Conference - HMP Bristol Hand Injury Pathway.

Medico-legal work:

I work within the distinct fields of military and custodial primary care.

I have been completing medico-legal reports since 2019.

I attend regular medico-legal training.

40-45 instructions undertaken per year predominantly on behalf of Defence with 70:30 split.

I have not attended any trials as all my cases have settled prior to going to court.

This work is undertaken alongside my fulltime NHS clinical commitment.
